Take one deep breath when the sun rises
It's the very first morning of the very first day
Find brand new days have the light I've never seen
Each day seems like perfect and there's nothing else to say
But in those days are some gaps in between
You're not here, where you were with me
New friends appear, but they seem so gloomy

And when I come to a time when I'm alone
Now I look down at what I've ever been
I hate my way, I hate my face
I hate to say, that I used to feel grace
There's nothing more to figure out
Cause' I don't know what I liked about
Life, when I don't have you in my arms

Still keep walking until I completely forget
It's the very first fears of the very first tears
Find sad but true things require some accept
Each day I lived in perfection, but now it disappeared
As if nothing ever happened, but I know my heart is upset
You're not here, I only see your shadows
My mind isn't clear, and nothing follows

And when I come to a time when I'm alone
Now I look down at what I've ever been
I hate my way, I hate my face
I hate to say, that I used to feel grace
There's nothing more to figure out
Cause' I don't know what I liked about
Life, when I don't have you in my arms

All I ever wanted was just like what you wanted
But what I needed was what you already had

Tell myself that I'm back to what I used to be
And I realize missing parts of me
It's clear on my skin, all my earlier sins
Who told me this

Is it someone I miss?

And when I come to a time when I'm alone
Now I look down at what I've ever been
I hate my way, I hate my face
I hate to say, that I used to feel grace
There's nothing more to figure out
Cause' I don't know what I liked about
Life, when I don't have you in my arms
But I have a weight to carry now
Until I find out how

No, no, no, no, no
No, no, no, no, no
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

The sun rises
I take a deep breath
While you take a deep breath as well
