So many ways for me to run
To get back to the
Simple life we started

Head full of plans
Are my hands still clean?
We're talking about the
Things we've done forever

That crystal clear voice
That rings so true
Is easy to ignore
When the feelings pass

Waking the blue
Within in my mind
I'm hoping there's
One thing that changes me

Never wanted you to say
Aaaahhh ah, yeah
Never wanted you to say
Aaaahhh ah

Just thought that I'd say
While it's fresh on my mind
That wanting and needing
Are the same to me

Elastic bands on my back
I'll never leave this place and
I'll join in with a smile
Across my face

We see to ignite
It's true
Why go back to the Crossroads that started this?

I hope that the walls
Have kept the secrets they keep

I say this as the ceiling's coming down

Never wanted you to say
Aaaahhh ah yeah,
Never wanted you to say
Aaaahhh ah yeah,

So many ways for me to run
To get back to the
Simple life we started

Head full of plans
Are my hands still clean?
We're talking about the
Things we've done forever

Never wanted you to say
Aaaahhh ah yeah,
Aaaahhh ah yeah.
