I've lost my way
I've waited til the sun goes down
There's no body near me now
I'm alone

And I feel
Like there's nothing left to give
I need her to walk right in
Into my life

I need her, I need her
Woah
I need her, I need her
Woah

I need her, I need her
Woah
I need her, I need her
Woah
I'll wait one million years,
I've cried one million tears
Woah
I've cried one million tears

I'm living in a heartbreak city
We're all alone with no pity
Locked in so we're all crying
Some of us dying

But through the rain and thunder
When will I leave I wonder?
There's no way out I swear
Why can't she be here?

I need her, I need her
Woah
I need her, I need her
Woah

I need her, I need her
Woah

I need her, I need her
Woah
I'll wait one million years,
I've cried one million tears
Woah
I've cried one million tears

I need her, I need her
Woah
I need her, I need her
Woah

I need her, I need her
Woah
I need her, I need her
Woah
I'll wait one million years,
Woah
I've cried one million tears
