Lying in bed tryna get some rest,
When I get your text,
You only talk to me at night....

You tell me how you've been upset,
Confusion in your head
Can't tell wrong from right....

But you know I'd take you back a million times,
I still think about you being mine

These feelings that will never hide away, fade away,
drift away, just go away....

I know you found it hard to let it go,
Even though,
I made you cry,
Every single night
And then you'd run away with him,
To begin,
And then you'd crawl back to me;
Coz you can't it let go

I know you found it hard to let it go,
Even though,
I made you cry,
Every single night
And then you'd run away with him,
To begin,
And then you'd crawl back to me
Coz you can't it let go

Now you're knocking on my door,
What for?
We've been here before....
(Here before)

Time and time I say to myself,
This is the end, this is the last time
(Just give her once more chance)

But then things change, we fight,
And shout the blames,
Blow out the flames
Play the games
That tear us apart

But you know I'd take you back a million times,
I still think about you being mine

These feelings that will never hide away, fade away,
drift away, just go away....

I know you found it hard to let it go,
Even though,
I made you cry,
Every single night
And then you'd run away with him,
To begin,
And then you'd crawl back to me;
Coz you can't let go

I know you found it hard to let it go,
Even though,
I made you cry,
Every single night
And then you'd run away with him,
To begin,
And then you'd crawl back to me
Coz you can't let go

Now that I'm back and things get better,
Still got feelings I'll never forget,
Won't let it go, coz I'm go and get her
Now I got her I will never regret
Been a few months and I've done my thing
It was empty substance, no feelings

Things are alot better than they once were,
Not just for me; I was thinking of her
Stuck between positive and the negative
Now it's all good I can breathe - Yes Sir!
Now it's all good I can breathe - Let's go!
Are we on the same page here, so let me know

We're on the road tryna do our thing
And from here on now we can only go
I couldn't be without you,
It's been way too long
I couldn't be without you,
Here's where I belong
I couldn't be without you,

Feels like it's meant to be
I couldn't be without you,
It feels like a dream...
