Welcome the prince of a royal family
We accept your heritage, of carnage, and all of the dirty dealings
Heir to a throne, by all means, necessary
All hail to the thieves of democracy

Take some action, and reclaim that
Which at once, we held in the palms of our hands
Overthrow the incompetent
Consider the source
Off with the serpents head
Rape our traditions and values as they are left for dead
Victimizing demons while demonizing victims
Look past the lie

Divide, conquer, pillage, destroy

First of the agenda
Fulfill the patriarchs revenge
And reeking havoc upon our land
Let me ask one question,
Whose children did you slaughter before your rest today

Divide, conquer, pillage, destroy

Take some action, and reclaim
That which at once we held in our hands
Overthrow the incompetent
Consider the source
Off with the serpents head
Off with the serpents head
Rape our traditions and values as they are left for dead
Victimizing demons, while demonizing victims
Look past the lie
Look past the lie

Rape our traditions and values as they are left for dead
Victimizing demons while demonizing victims

Look past the lie
