Everybody likes an easy way out
Nobody tells it like it is no more
You took a hit and then you blew it out
The light inside that shined before

Never had a heart to love this much
Never felt enough to call it hate
If you can let a thing screw you up
It's not too late

It's always so close
Then you pull it away
And anything goes
Then it goes astray
And what are you left with at the end of the day
It's all love, it's all love, it's all love

Nothing left but the sound of doubt
Pouring out the heart that you live in
No one tried to help you figure it out
Does anybody see the signs you're given

Never had a heart that loved this much
Never felt enough to call it hate
If you can let a thing screw you up
It's not too late

It's always so close
Then you pull it away
And anything goes
Then it goes astray
It's all love, it's all love, it's all love

Is anybody listening to what I'm trying to feel (I wish I knew)
Is anybody feeling anything that's real (I wish I knew)
Is anybody really gonna help me fill this hole inside of you

It's always so close
Then you pull it away

And anything goes
Then it goes astray
It's all love, it's all love, it's all love

It's always so close
Then you pull it away
Anything goes
Then it goes astray
What are you left with at the end of the day?
It's all love, it's all love, it's all love
