Didn't hear a tone, are you, hello
I never hear a tone, I guess you know
I can't remember what I called to say
I thought you might be home on Saturday
I really can't believe it's been a year
It took a little time without you here
I'm guessing you survived alone somehow
It's good that I can joke about it now
I still avoid the park at Christopher
Never wanna feel the way we were
Unless I'm in a hurry for that train
And that's the only newsstand open late
People change (people change) everyday (everyday)
Change like you (change like you)
I got all the time in the world
People cry (people cry) all the time (all the time)
Cry like me (cry like me)
We got all the time in the world
It's been so long that no one even asks
And everybody's walkin' on the grass
Grass that took a while to reappear
I'd forgotten green without you here
Christmas came and went upon this bench
Tryin' to justify what made no sense
Now the ivy's overrun the tears
But it could never hide what happened here
People change (people change) everyday (everyday)
Change like you (change like you)
I got all the time in the world
People cry (people cry) all the time (all the time)
Cry like me (cry like me)
We got all the time in the world
(Fillin' in the conversation by myself)
(Fillin' in the reason why you leave me leavin', leavin')
(Thinkin' back, the hope we had was more than mine)
The hope we had was more than mine (more than mine)
I know it makes sense to you (more than mine)
Just make it make sense to me
Maybe I'm alive beneath the snow
Maybe you're too petrified to know
