Now a first love should be someone you can trust.
You were my first love
but it didn't last long enough.
Still my heart it keeps believin'
that miracles happen more than one time you'll come back and be my love mine.

True love
I know that it's forever

true love
in any kind of weather

true love
we should be holding hands

making plans we shared together
you know that
baby
I love you.
True true love
it shines like no star ever

some things were made in heaven

we should be back embracing

making each day we have together the best forever
and ever.

Now a first love wakes you up to all your needs

tell me why did you have to leave ?
Still my heart it keeps on hoping

True love
I know that it's forever

true love
in any kind of weather

true love

I love you.

we should be back embracing

and ever.

Stop ! You're my first love.
You started my heart believin'
it's you that I am needing.

True love
I know that it's forever

true love
in any kind of weather

true love

I love you.

and ever.
