New Year's Eve
In this dress
I am yours completely, baby
You look away
Into the crowd
Pretty soon you're gone
So I cry a little
Underwater now
I am drowning slowly
'Till I hear those in love turn and say
It happens everyday

How does it feel when you're not alone?
When you don't pretend you're happy?
When your heart is not as cold as stone?
How does it feel when
You're love's returned?
A little goes a long way when you're lonely
'Cos it doesn't happen everyday to me
To me

How I crave
Every touch
Every slight attention, baby
Satisfied with a glance
Where did I go wrong?
So I die a little
Under pressure now
I am crumbling slowly
'Till I see those in love smile and say

It happens everyday

How does it feel when you're not alone?
When you don't pretend you're happy?
When your heart is not as cold as stone?
How does it feel when
You're love's returned?
A little goes a long way when you're lonely
'Cos it doesn't happen everyday to me

How long has a girl gotta wait for someone?
How long does it take to fall that way?
When does it happen everyday?

How does it feel when you're not alone?
When you don't pretend you're happy?
When your heart is not as cold as stone?
How does it feel when
You're love's returned?
A little goes a long way when you're lonely
'Cos it doesn't happen everyday to me
To me
