"Drive On"

in the car on the way to the city in the morning it was foggy on the windscreen we talked about the day ahead and shouldn't we just run away instead we started to believe our dreams and i just kept driving right past the exit throwing our cellphones out of the window yelling at the city goodbye we wont miss you i knew now that our lifes on track as i felt the strength down in my bones come back you smile at me and i at you cos this is all we ever wanted to do so to the south now with our hearts alive and our heads free of worry that our lives provide off far in the distance almost out of sight goodbye to city days so long to city nights so believing every word we say i drove on until the break of day a smile stretched from my ear to yours there's nothing a bit of fresh breeze wont cure go on, you said drive on, you said

go on
go on
