Watching the entire night
Pictures of you I once took in my mind,
Was it alright?
Broke the rules by telling you
I liked you too much

You didnt wanna see me
Watching you at your best
As you thought you were perfectly
Answering my questioning
The perfect man

Tonight
Im gonna make millions out of light
Im gonna pretend I am alright

Eating the entire night
Raw fish
Trained 4 years
To kiss my lips as the main dish
Broke the rules by asking you
What Id to do next

And I never thought youd had
Such a small, small face
Though you always taught integrity
I find but disgrace
As you thought you were perfectly
Answering my questioning
The perfect man

Tonight
Im gonna be questioning your rights
Im gonna be strong enough to fight
(The wrong reasons why you wanna be in love with me)

Tonight
Im gonna make millions out of light
Im gonna pretend I am alright
