This darkness castle bleeds with horror
And no one wanders here - in the place of chill
Black ravens in the sky and crying in the night
The wood surround this with deadly sharpen spikes

You can't affect on the curse of yours
It' from the side of those, whose wish is darkness
So fear - you are nothing in his eyes
It soon will turn your mind to evil side

Once the king lived there, princess lived there too
Love blossomed here both with happiness
Then curse was casted on by voice so cold and dark
The filth took place that led to pain and deaths

The curse!
Today there walk the shades of dark - beware
And whoever you are - you'll feel the chill not once
So, for eternal time you'll serve the darkness

This darkness castle bleeds with horror
And no one wanders here - in the place of chill
Black ravens in the sky and crying in the night
The wood surround this with deadly sharpen spikes
