Every day in the magazines they
Make us think
That we aren't half worthy if we
Aren't sickly thin
A popular skeleton
Everything that we hear on tv
The news at ten
Is exactly what they want us to hear
And we believe the lies instead
And I though drugs burned our head
Well I say

Why can't we just be the people
Living out our dreams
Why can't we just be able
To save the world

We're stronger than zombies life has
Us thick skinned
We're addicted to sugar cause it
Resides in everything
So medically we can't win
Well I say

Why can't we just be the people
Living out our dreams
Why can't we just be able
To save the world

It's not hard to contribute if you
Just begin
To realize the beauty in yourself
And not be afraid to sing
So let your arms turn to wings
And and and I say

Why can't we just be the people
Living out our dreams
Why can't we just be able
To save the world
Be the people

To save the world
Be able to
Save the world
