Wind me up like a little tin soldier
And I'll march for you
I'll tumble around like a circus clown
If you want me to
Oh I'll dance or sing and I'll do anything
When you're sad and blue
Let me be your entertainer

I'll take you around the world
On a magic carpet ride
I'll bring you a gift of music
When your dreams have died
Oh I'd fly through the breeze
On a high trapeze to be by your side
Let me be your entertainer

Step right up, take a look at my eyes
And you'll see it there
The tears of a clown who's heart's been broken
Beyond repair
I'll hide myself behind my laughter
You're not aware
Of the constant pain of the entertainer
Ah, you won't see the strain
Of the entertainer

Oh I know how it is when you need someone
To smile your way
Someone who can bring you sunshine
On a rainy day
No you don't even have to love me
Only let me stay
Let me be your entertainer
Let me be your entertainer
