Why won't you explain
My life was sunshine and now it's rain
Why, with what we share
You cast me off without a care
Why was I so blind
Didn't see your love drift away from mine
Without you here by me
I feel so lost, so lonely
Why, oh why must you tell me it's goodbye
Where, oh where did your love go
There's no tomorrow
Please, I am begging you

I must know why has our love died
I'm just so tangled up inside
I try to hide a tear
As I face life without you here
Why, oh why must you tell me it's goodbye
Where, oh where did your love go
There's no tomorrow
Please I am begging you

I must know - lah-la-la-la-lah
La-la-la-lah, La-la-la-lah
Lah-la-la-lah, La-la-la-lah, La-la-la-lah

Why won't you explain
My life was sunshine and now it's rain
Why, with what we shared
You cast me off without a care
Why was I so blind
Didn't see your love drift away from mine
Without you here by me [fade]
