Oh night sweat
Sleep it off is exactly what I should do
I won't come through, I won't come through
Nobody understands this light
Just like me sincerity
Oh please return to me

'Cause I've been lying to myself, to myself
Myself, you see

Time will create something that's the truth
So it pierces through you, cuts me in two
Shows me why I lied to you, why I lied to you
To you, I lied to you

And part of me, I'll never see
But it's gone I must go on
