"The Bed Is Warm"

music is the
phantom decider
determining
my life launches
ever to be
play ends now
so sing softer
sounds of laughing again
again, again, again

so sometimes i fall asleep
if this day i lived wide awake and it's in my soul
jewels of life glitter
at least i saw who this music is for

i have felt the warmth of the three
in this same bed
beating next to me
here in my new home
finally wake
for the first time
so now i lay asleep
asleep, asleep, asleep

if this day i lived wide awake and it's in the soul
jewels of life glitter
at least i saw who the music is for
