Are you gonna die with that music inside?
Did you catch the twilight on your way into work?
You can live anything, you can think
Man, I'm not lying to you and yeah that's a threat

I don't want to have to bury you like this Something's gotta get your attention
If I have to crack open your skull with my fist
I'll let the light and the sound escape

Listen now, you can hear the sound
Surrender and let the light come out
Don't be afraid, let me hear your voice
What you will live is what you make
What you make, what you make

I know you've worked hard your whole life
And now you're tired, the money is never enough It's never gonna be enough, man that's not even the point
Only thing you can't afford is to keep buying the lines your fed
Sure keep him dead

I know it's comfortable to go back to sleep
Take a look at what you've been lying in Before you wake up in search of your paycheck death
Demons of regret are making your deathbed

Listen now, you can hear the sound
Surrender and let the light come out
Don't be afraid, let me hear your voice
What you will live is what you make
What you make, what you make

Don't be afraid, let me hear your voice
Let the light come out
'Cause I'm ready now like I never was before
To see what this is all about, all about, all about
