When will i be left alone
Wish i knew the words to say to you
But i guess i never do
We have gone this far
And i know its not that easy to let you go
And now im trying to find my way out of this curse
I'm realizing the things we need to rearrange when you're gone

So here i am
Saying sorry, please understand
I know im not worth dying for
But im trying i am, i am

(Instrumentals)

Its so hard to say that its over
A thousand reasons will be left unsaid
Its over, its over

(drum rolls...my favorite part!.yeah!)

Its so hard to say that its over
A thousand reasons will be left unsaid
Its over, its fuckin' over!

The pictures of your face (yeah, this is the end now)
The moments and promises (yeah, this is the end now)
All the times we had (this is the end)
Its not forever
This is the end of it all yeah..
