Intro: [G] [D] [A] [D]

[D] Well she weighs a buck ninety and she looks real good. At [A] least she does to me.
She don't wear no fancy clothes when we go out to [D]
eat
I like beer and onion rings and betting on the [G]
game.
[A] I asked her to marry me, and she belched out my
[D] name

Chorus:

Ya [G] other guys like trophy wives with [D] tiny little waists They'll [G] buy them yachts and caviar to [D] suit their champagne [A] taste.
[G] Me I like em husky with an [D] appetite for [B] life
[G] I thank God for [D] giving me my [A] bowling trophy
[D] wife

[G] [D] [A] [D]

[D] Well she makes her own bubbles in her bubble bath
[A] that just makes me proud She'll dance around the house in her birthday suit with music way too [D] loud
She likes Merle Haggard and she likes George Jones and a little bit of Patsy [G] Cline She'll [A] grab my butt in the grocery store when we're standing in the checkout [D] line

(chorus x2)

[G] Man I'm in [D] love with my [A] bowling trophy [D]
wife

[G] [D] [G] [D] [G] [D] [G] [D]
