I need you and you need me.
Also I need to be free.
Free as the word free can mean,
To stand secure outside this dream.
Starstruck moonman looks so blind,
You're still a slave within your mind.
And all this time you have not guessed.

Where you are bound,
Which way you're heading,
How you can stop feeling confused.

Follow the star that is moving so slowly,
Flow in it's river of light and you'll see,
That you have found,
What you've been searching,
Come back and help us to regain
