Open your eyes if you dare,
Future comes all you know is that you'll share,
Suns and moons, many cycles, miles of days,
Your love shines, like a beacon, through the haze.
Your twin lives twined together,
Jigsaw, fit, snap together--
King and Queen,
An extra gene.

Can your words cope with infinity,
You must communicate perfectly.
Don't you think you can surely make it now,
You don't need anyone to show you how.
Your twin lives twined together,
Jigsaw, fit, snap together,
Your twin heads crowned together--
King and Queen
And extra gene.
