You know I love you baby you know I need you too

The life I lead is all I need to make my dreams come true

It was a July night in Houston when first I felt your heat

Girl you look so fine in that jukebox line that I forgot I had two left feet

You know I want you baby you know I need you so

The love you make gives me the shakes from my head down to my toes

Your love is something smoking your love is something hot

When I feel the storm rolling in your arms I'm gonna give you everything I've got

Every beat of your heart is like a bolt of blue lightning

You heat up the night like a hot summer wind

The taste of your lips just sets me on fire

Everywhere I turn got love to burn again

I love to please you baby and smell your sweet perfume

The way you walk and the way you talk just keeps me on the moon

Your love is high explosive there's dynamite in blue jeans

Anytime you choose to light that fuse you're gonna blow us all to smithereens

Every beat of your heart...

Everywhere I turn got love to burn again

Everywhere I turn got love to burn again
