"New Day"

Time to go
Time to pack my bags and leave
Now I know
I was too young too naive
I could stay
But then I'm stuck on yesterday
I can't wait to see
What this world holds for me

It's a new day
And it feels like
The first day of my life
It's a new day
And I wonder
Can't you see it in my eyes
So don't look back
You can never look back
I'm gonna leave my tears behind
Don't look back
I won't look back
Yesterday won't blind me

Breaking through
No more walls I need to climb
I wish I knew
I was wasting too much time
I could stay
But then I'm stuck on yesterday
I can't wait to see
What this world holds for me

It's a new day
And it feels like
The first day of my life
It's a new day
And I wonder
Can't you see it in my eyes
So don't look back
You can never look back
I'm gonna leave my tears behind
Don't look back

I won't look back
Yesterday won't blind me

Every single day
Is a chance to turn it all around
So wake up, wake up, wake up

It's a new day
And it feels like
The first day of my life
It's a new day
And I wonder
Can't you see it in my eyes
So don't look back
You can never look back
I'm gonna leave my tears behind
Don't look back
I won't look back

It's a new day!
