Falling down at the reservoir
Canopy of a million stars
Echoes from before
Ring between rocky walls
A light year ago no one knew of nothing more
Give me a sign from above, give me open soothing vault, my love
Falling down at the reservoir
Canopy of a million stars
Neverending stream
Passing by in between
If I could rise up high you would, you would be mine
River floating by, if you only could
If you could leave with me
Promise far too good to keep
Leave, leave with me
Devil and the deep blue sea
Whatever I owe
Leave, leave, leave with me, my love
Falling down at the reservoir
Canopy of a million stars
Echoes from before
Ring between rocky walls
To be here with you
A single ray to see me through
Let my cover go to, if you only could
