I smoked the shit that made you love

Drowned all your problems like a wife

Blanked out your anger with my face

Wasted my days to hide disgrace

I did it all, did it all

All in the name of pity

You loved to taunt me with your sex

Kicked up the memory in my head

Watch my neurosis building up

Swallowed the truth your mind forgot

You did it all, did it all

All in the name of pity

You did it all, did it all

All in the name of pity

In the name of pity

In the name of pity

In the name of pity

Why, why, why, why, why, why, why, why

You tried and tried to use my life

To keep your aggression trivialized

Never an ego in control

(But) now who's the shit that sold his soul

You did it all, did it all

In the name of pity

You did it all, did it all

In the name

You did it all, did it all

In the name of pity

In the name of pity

In the name of pity
