lost infidelity, we never said a word so black and white you see it's all the lies we've heard in my mind nothing makes sense i'm nothing you can't have cracked up to disagree, that's all we've ever had you, only you, only you only you can't be the one x2 your secret smile so quaint in memories fortold laughing so viciously, your concience has been sold in my face there's no more joy i'm all i should be cracked infidelity, is all you are to me
we don't talk anymore x2 we don't care anymore x2
