I wonder what you're thinking
When your fist was in my face
Was it nice to have the feeling
None of that power gone to waste
And you think that I can't trust you
With your visions and my bloody
When all your promises and passions
Make me vomit in disgust
'Cos I loathe you
Yes I loathe you
You made me carry on
You made me carry on
You made me carry on
Through rage
And the way you move your backside
You're so miserably dull
There's no conversation inspiration
Coming from your skull
You gave me all your weary tears
Your second handed loves
But all the weapons and the taunting
Made a wise girl have it all
