When I first saw you this strange kind of feeling set my head a-reeling Like I hit the ceiling. The same thing happened to me then, baby. Something kind of crazy and everything went hazy. Lightning and thunder shook the ground. And I could feel the whole world turn round underneath me. I could feel the whole world turn round. My, have you never been set on fire? Burning with desire growing higher and higher. Like on a funny fair big wheel stopping when you are to topping, The you feel it dropping ☐ Rising and heaven falling down. And I could feel the whole world turn round underneath me. I could feel the whole world turn round. I took my breath as though I've been running. Quite completely stunning, holy, overcoming. And in a funny way it seemed frightening. Tension and a hardening ☐ Thunder and the lightning ☐ And I've grown the singer who wrote that song. And I could feel the whole world turn round underneath me. I could feel the whole world turn round when you're near me. I could feel the whole world turn round. I could feel the whole world turn round underneath me. I could feel the whole world turn round
round.
