I'm tired of the same old stories,
I'm bored of this old place.
I just need to go and work this out,
So baby I need some space.

I just need to remember how fun,
It was to scream as loud as I want.
I'll just go out into the sun,
And do everything you can't.

Do ya feel like goin' somewhere?
Do ya feel like lettin' go?
I just wanna scream as loud as I dream,
So baby I need to know.

Do ya feel like goin' some place,
Where it's small and dark and nice?
Do ya feel like goin' somewhere?
Do ya feel like lettin' go?

Just a little bit more,
Now much louder than before.
I just need to go and clear my head
Of all the bad stuff they've said.

But ya know I require your help now,
To complete this little task.
So please can you come with me?
Baby this is all I ask.

Do ya feel like goin' somewhere?
Do ya feel like lettin' go?
I just wanna scream as loud as I dream,
So baby I need to know.

Do ya feel like goin' some place,
Where it's small and dark and nice?
Do ya feel like goin' somewhere?
Do ya feel like lettin' go?

I'm havin' so much fun now,

Lettin' go of all my cares.
Baby you can go now.
Go get on with whatever you dare.

Do ya feel like goin' somewhere?
Do ya feel like lettin' go?
I just wanna scream as loud as I dream,
So baby I need to know.

Do ya feel like goin' some place,
Where it's small and dark and nice?
Do ya feel like goin' somewhere?
Do ya feel like lettin' go?

I just wanna scream as loud as I dream,
So baby I need to know.

Do ya feel like goin' some place,
Where it's small and dark and nice?
Do ya feel like goin' somewhere?
Do ya feel like lettin' go?

Like lettin' go?
Like lettin' go?
Like lettin' go?

Thanks to Katie
