You make an entrance like you've got it all You've got a swagger and you're walking tall yeah

I know your type you're the king of the night But i've seen your name on the wall

I can read you baby like a book You think you've got me with just one look so the game has begon, think you've already won But im not gonna fall for your charme

Your sudden and sure, you've done it before The golden ticket is yours you brought in the show, but I wanna know...

Gonna make your heart ache

na,ah ooh na,ah ooh
time to place your bet
the cards haven't been validated
you're telling me that im your queen
but you're just a joker to me
, to me, to me

Sitting pretty with a drink in your hand youre scort & booming like you got a plan don't play by the rules, pick and you choose waiting for the ladies to swoon it's private members and you got a card and all the doormen know who you are jump in the Q , eyes following you i can tell this is nothing new ive seen it before, so self assured but you're just full of talk you'll end up alone, cause i just know it's got to make your heart ache

the cards haven't been validated
you're telling me that im your queen

na na na na na nananana na na
you're nothing but a joker
no, no, you're nothing but a joker to me
