247 you keep stressing me to do the things I don't want to do or be something I don't want to be well let me tell you something I'm not a bird in your cage you can run that game on someone else 'cause it is never gonna work on me don't you know
you can't change me
or rearrange me
don't waste your time
baby, can't you see
that you can't change me when we first got together I told you how it would be you said it's all good and you understood now I see you feel differently you say I love my music more than you
and that's not cool well you might as well just tell me now are you gonna break out or be down 'cause now you know the deal let's keep it real it may not be what you want to hear but baby you know
