If I was a bird and you was a fish
What would we do, I guess we'd wish
For re-incarnation, re-incarnation
Wouldn't it be a sensation
To come back too, like reincarnation

If I was a tree and you was a flower
What would we do, I guess we'd wait for the power
Of re-incarnation, re-incarnation,
Wouldn't it be a sensation
To come back too, like reincarnation

L love you, and don't you know I always will
You're a girl, I'm a boy,
But suppose you were a rose
And I was a whip-poor-will

If I was a bird and you was a fish
What would we do, I guess we'd wish
For re-incarnation, re-incarnation
Wouldn't it be a sensation
To come back too, like reincarnation

If I was a tree and you was a flower
What would we do, I guess we'd wait for the power
Of re-incarnation, re-incarnation,
Wouldn't it be a sensation
To come back too, like reincarnation

L love you, and don't you know I always will
You're a girl, I'm a boy,
But suppose you were a rose
And I was a whip-poor-will
