Welcome to the Question Mark
This Is ABM's latest fresh start
Balls In My Soup was a good song
But since then we've had to move on

We went to Cuttlefish
Then Discoberry
Now Hey There Douglas
Had a bad streak with A Gentlemen's Face
Now we're going to take the best of it and win the race
(Hey)

We've got some brand new pop songs
For all you to dance and laugh to
We think you'll really like them
And if you don't, no refunds
This is our final album
Until we make the next one
We're sure you all will miss us
And we really just do not even care

So welcome to our album
Take your shoes off and make yourself at home
We've got some stories to tell
So come on dude, what are you waiting for?
