Well I fell in love in Texas when a little girl said to me Come on back down here you all and let's grow a little honey tree
Well I bought myself a ticket and the train leaves by quarter to four I can see her now with the great big eyes waitin' at the station door Ain't that fine ain't that fine ain't that fine fine fine she's all mine
Well she took me home to mama and that didn't impress me much Till she wrote down a great big welcome mat and that picked me with a magic touch When she walks down the sidewalk all the cowboys step aside Cause they all know she's a one man woman and she'll soon be roped and tied Let me tell you ain't that fine ain't that fine ain't that fine fine fine she's all mine Well now her daddy owns a oilwell in the Lone Star
Texas State
And it shoot much gold to the clear blue sky and brother ain't that great Well now I just can see me highball with a big long fine cigar
A big success watchin' things progress a schauffer with a long black car Come on ain't that fine ain't that fine ain't that fine fine fine she's all mine Yeah ain't that fine fine fine she's all mine
