You say that others tempt you and it's hard to turn them down

You say that you get lonesome when I'm not around Please remember you're my kingdom and I want to always wear a crown

Though temptation's knocking please don't let him in Tell him that it's my arms you long to be in Please remember you're my kingdom and I want to
always wear a crown

And tell your heart these times that we're apart And you're so alone that my love for you goes on and on

Though temptation's knocking please don't let him in Tell him that it's my arms you long to be in Please remember you're my kingdom and I want to
always wear a crown

Tell your heart these times that we're apart
And you're so alone that my love for you goes on and

Though temptation's knocking please don't let him in Tell him that it's my arms you long to be in Please remember you're my kingdom and I want to always wear the crown
