I'm hitching down a long old highway
To much too soon and it's too late
I want to go and dance in the pouring rain
See you right there through the window pane
Don't want to see, don't want to believe
I jus want to feel you here right with me
First I seek and I turn
Take me back a little south of heaven

I can't let go!
There's a force that's bringing me to you
I need to lead!
So grab my hand and let's dance, so let's dance
I see before me!
A little place, a home and a family
First I seek and I turn
Take me back a little south of heaven

I'm walking down a long dusty road
Legs grow tired but on I roll
First I seek and I turn
Take me back to my little south of heaven

I can't let go!
There's a force that's bringing me to you
I need to lead!
So take my hand and let's dance, so let's dance
I see before me!
A little place, a home and a family
First I seek and I turn
So take me back to my little south of heaven

1, 2, 3, 4

I can't let go!
There's a force that's bringing me to you
I need to lead!
So grab my hand and let's dance, so let's dance
I see before me!
A new place, a home and a family
First I seek and I turn

So take me back to my little south ofâ€¦

I can't let go!

I need to lead!

I see before me! (A family)
