

Awakened, The "One More Day"

I can feel you there inside me
Want you to inspire me
In the way I feel
When I break this peace and harmony

The hands of time are upon me
Now I need you there to save me
Take the strain
I face this fear of circumstances

Do you like what you see?
Don't you take it from me
Don't you take it away
In the morning I pray for my soul
But you always take it away

If I had one more day to live
I would live it in complete sacrilege (One more day)
If I had one more day to live
I would live it in complete sacrilege (One more)

Hope these Gods don't take me
No matter Hell will drag me down
And the Devil's dance
To the rhythm of my heartbeat

The hands of time are upon me
Now I need you there to save me
Take the strain
I face this fear of circumstances

Do you like what you see?
Don't you take it from me
Don't you take it away
In the morning I pray for my soul
But you, you take it away

If I had one more day to live
I would live it in complete sacrilege (One more day)
If I had one more day to live
I would live it in complete sacrilege

If I had one more day to live
I would live it in complete sacrilege
If I had one more day to live
I would live it, live it, live it, yeah

If I had one more day to live
I would live it in complete sacrilege (One more day)
If I had one more day to live
I would live it in complete sacrilege
