I am caught in a trap, there is no turning back, I'm finally facin' the fear
The sky is on fire, and up with the flames, my hope and my dreams disappear So bring me the power, I'll be the king of the land and the seas
Show me the way to go, let me fight with my body and soul

Let me be the native son with freedom in my heart Life will never be the same when spirits are calling my name
My name...

Let me out of the darkness, the shadow of pain, and I'm keepin' my promise to you My people, my spirit, the home of my heart - you're with me wherever I go So bring me the power, I'll be the king of the land and
the seas
I've got a way to go, let me fight with my body and soul

name
My name...

So bring me the power, I'll be the king of the land and
the seas
I've got a way to go, let me fight with my body and soul

Let me be the native son with freedom in my home Life will never be the same when spirits are calling my

Spirits are calling my name
