"Fare Thee Well"

Alone again
Cold is the night
Has love lost it's charm
Sky and stars capture me
As night grows old

A million strides minus you
I will find my way

A bleak expanse
The midnight sky
Radiating fireflies
Cloud the air
Of segmented nightmares

Unclear visions of
Beauty's gradual
Beauty's gradual declining
Fleeting Fantasy
Am I senselessly
Dreaming senselessly
Am I dreaming?

A million strides minus you
I will find my way

Fare Thee Well
Beauty is fleeting
This is all I know
Of sincerity from you

A million strides minus you
I will find my way
