Once on a time thus me and you.
Once when I loved you - you love me too.
But time goes by and now I feeling pain,
Can seem to cry - the sky is dark
And filled with heavy rain
It's coming down on me
And this is all I see.

Everybody's got a lonely heart
The world is dieing no more spinning around.
Everybody's got to get control
And find a loving, lying deep in there soul.
Get together if you like
And we remember the time,
When together in the playground
Everybody was fine.
Get together we remember
How we follow the child.
Get together we remember
Just how much we all smiled.

Now I see the light shining through.
Now among the clouds I see some blue
Among the crowd - I see your face
Your smiling back at me
Gone is the shroud - I caring round
But no one else could see
With just a loving touch
We all could do so much.

Everybody's got a lonely heart
The world is dieing no more spinning around.
Everybody's got to get control
And find a loving, lying deep in there soul.
Get together if you like
And we remember the time,
When together in the playground
Everybody was fine.
Get together we remember
How we follow the child.
Get together we remember
Just how much we all smiled.

Everybody's got a lonely heart
The world is dieing no more spinning around.
Everybody's got to get control
And find a loving, lying deep in there soul.

Everybody's got a lonely heart
The world is dieing no more spinning around.
Everybody's got to get control
And find a loving, lying deep in there soul...
