"I Love You"

I've crossed the world to be with you.
To see you smile, to say: "Hello".
To hold your hands in both of mine,
To tell you something you should know,
Crossed the world to let you know,
I love you.

I love you. I love you.
Crossed the world to let you know,
I love you.

If I could live a thousand years.
I'd live to love you, day by day.
For life is love and love is life.
And without love we fade away.
Crossed the world so I could say,
I love you.

I love you. I love you.
Crossed the world so I could say,
I love you.

Love everlasting, honest, true
And never changing always be.
Is all I have to give to you.
A gift from deep inside of me.
Crossed the world so you could see,
I love you.

I love you. I love you.
Crossed the world so you could see,
I love you.

I love you. I love you.
Crossed the world so you could see,
I love you.
