Title: Moments

After so many years I'm still by your side.
After so many tears in the dark of the night.
Like a carousel in rain all we had was pain,
gonna live once again.

Like the sunlight shining all trough,
Showing all these moments I've shared with you.

All these moments I've shared with you.
We can start to life again.

All these moments that we been trough.
Looking for the world once again.

We will never forget - we will never regard.
All these moments I've share with you.

Every life must be modified
so many things you taught to me.
I could not have survived those times
without your love to set my spirit free.

All these moments I've share with you -
all these moments
All these moments that we been trough -
that we been trough,
Ah . . . ah . . . ah . . . - that we been trough
