See in the far of blue, a speck, a star,
It comes to take me far, far from you.

My silver eagle comes to take me home.
I want you with me but I have to go alone.
One sad last goodbye, oh it hurts to see you cry.
So just give me a smile to take with me a while.

I'll keep you in my heart,
Go endlessly far a part.
Each thought will be about you,
Must learn to life without you.
One thing sure: I'll always love you.

My silver eagle with the speed of light,
Will take me from you, off into the deepest night.
One last long goodbye then from way up in the sky.
I look down from a star and loved you from a far.

I'll keep you in my heart,
Go endlessly far a part.
Each thought will be about you,
Must learn to life without you.
Oh my love.

I'll keep you in my heart,
Go endlessly far a part.
Each thought will be about you,
Must learn to life without you.
One thing sure: I'll always love you.
One thing sure: I'll always love you.
