For all the happiness.
For all the many hours of joy we share.
For all the ways you show me that you care.
I thank you love, I thank you love.

For every loving word.
For all your gentle, giving, tenderness.
For each and every warm caress.
I thank you love, I thank you love.

You give me strength, uplift my soul.
You by my side, making me whole.
Oh I thank you love, thank you love.

For all the dreams we dreamed.
The ones that came to life, the ones that died.
Just making memories that stayed inside.
I thank you love, I thank you love.

For secrets we alone,
Could share between us in a crowded room.
The little smile that says:
"When we get home."
I thank you love, I thank you love.

You give me strength, uplift my soul.
You by my side, making me whole.
Oh I thank you love, thank you love.

For living through those times,
When stress and doubt would pull us far apart.
Each time our love gave us a brand new star.
Oh thank you love, I thank you love.
