White lightning
Your kiss has struck me down
White lightning
You had me blown away

White lightning
I think I've got a taste for
Your bad energy

White lightning
The doctors say it's over
White lightning
They think I've gone insane

White lightning
?Cause on a stormy night
I'm, I'm looking for your face

I'm looking for your face

White lightning
Your kiss has struck me down
White lightning
You had me blown away

White lightning
I think I've got a taste for
Your bad energy

White lightning
The doctors say it's over
White lightning
They think I've gone insane

White lightning
?Cause on a stormy night
I'm, I'm looking for your face

I'm looking for your face
I'm looking for your face

Your kiss has struck me down

You had me blown away
I think I've got a taste for
Your bad energy

White lightning, white lightning
I'm looking for your face
White lightning
Looking for your face
