i saw you standing there i wanted to know you i wanted to know your name but i was so scared
i thought you where one of those guys and that you couldnt care less but then i found out i saw it all clearly you where nothing like them you where shy but crazy

i walked up to you and i said who just tell me who you are i've been waiting so long and now im here
so just tell me who you

P.S. if you read these lyrics, its made up lyrics! i was so bored and just made it up! sorry if you dont like it and thank you if you do!

who you!
