She reached for his gun*
And aimed for his glass eye
Even his arms
They couldn't focus on her right
But oh, my money
Suck, suck, suck it down
You take out the car
Back up with aggression
I'll take the Lumina for miles
Dance all around you til I'm fine
Oh my god
Oh my god
I can't walk in sleep for you
I can't walk in sleep for you
Well say what you want, it was the last night
Hit by a rock, she couldn't let her self pass by
But oh, my money
Is it blindsided
Oh my god
Oh my god
I can't walk in sleep for you
I can't walk in sleep for you
I can't walk in sleep for you
I can't walk in sleep for you
