Head shapes narrowing
Brains stored in the freezer
Wind tops bellowing
It's a creeper double feature

Jaundiced and yellowing
I've always been a late bloomer
Shoegaze shimmering
There's no season to see it
I need it

One day I found you

It takes heroin and a hero's welcome

Pillows of recklessness
You'd just pop your mouth off
Dnd pierce the abdomen
Until it's less than perfect
Until it looks like everyone
To get so conceited
I need it

One day I found you
Changed
One day I found you
