When I close my eyes
Can I ask you to be open wide?

Shake it up and down until you break through ground
You got to keep it loose
Shout right out loud until you've killed every sound
You got to keep it loose

I keep hearing so much about the pressures we're only living to die
If that's the brakes it really hurts when you kick it yourself
Why the long face, baby?
Darling, that's really [...]

When I close my eyes
Can I ask you to be open wide?

Shake it up and down until you break through ground
You got to keep it loose
Shout right out loud until you've killed every sound
You got to keep it loose

I've been hearing so much about the right, left, and wrong way to live
A heavy heart, it really aches when you break it
When did everybody get neurotic on me?
I'm really sensitive

When I close my eyes
Can I ask you to be open wide?

Shake it up and down until you break through ground
You got to keep it loose
Shout right out loud until you've killed every sound
You got to keep it loose

Use a touch of imagination
You got to want to keep it loose
To multiply any sensation

You've got to try to keep it loose

Shake it up and down until you break through ground
You got to keep it loose

Shake it up and down until you break through ground
You got to keep it loose
Shout right out loud until you've killed every sound
You got to keep it loose
